13th IFEA

World Endodontic Congress
from November 9th to 12th
Santiago
de Chile
2022

INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF ENDO-DONTIC ASSOCIATIONS

The International Federation of Endodontic Associations (IFEA) was formed in 1986 to promote union and exchange amongst endodontists and continuing education in endodontics throughout the world. Currently, over 13,000 members are associated from 41 countries. IFEA holds a World Endodontic Congress every two years on different continents to share the latest research findings with approximately 2,000 dentists and endodontists from 50 countries. Along with the World Endodontic Congress, IFEA fully commits to supporting research and education by supporting the “Jean-Marie Laurichesse Research Grant Award”, “Best Poster and the Best Oral Research Presentation”, and sponsoring Endodontic Education Grants providing endodontic educational programs in developing countries.

The main objectives of the IFEA World Congresses are:

- Promote endodontics standard around the world.
- Provide a forum for the dissemination of endodontic knowledge and related topics.
- Provide a forum for the discussion of various issues relevant to endodontics.
- Promote camaraderie among members of the dental and endodontic profession.
- Show the latest materials and technology at associated trade shows.

To achieve the goals of the World Congresses, attendees will include general dentists, dental specialists (not necessarily endodontists), scientists, undergraduate and graduate students, representatives from the associated medical and dental industry, as well as chaperones.

PRESENTATION LETTER

Dear colleagues!

It is with great pleasure to invite you to participate in the 13th World Endodontic Congress of the International Federation of Endodontic Associations in Santiago de Chile from November 9th to 12th, 2022.

Santiago, the capital of Chile, is a modern city, with unique geography, sheltered by the imposing Andes mountain range, and surrounded by tourist attractions, less than 1-hour drive from the capital. They will be able to taste the best wines of the world, together with delicious and varied gastronomy that will make their stay a unique experience.

The Chilean capital will be your host during the 13th IFEA WEC, in the spring of the southern hemisphere, with very pleasant temperatures and our traditional hospitality, which added to the enthusiasm and commitment of the organizing team, will make you feel at home.

They will have the opportunity to be sharing, with more than 2000 delegates from 40 countries, what we like the most: Endodontics and its advances, accompanied by the most outstanding exponents of our discipline.

This world congress will be a wonderful opportunity to share your work and experience with a select group of Endodontists from around the world.

We invite you to participate!
